Are we on the right track?

Dr. Nancy Kellogg

You are invited to the CNS EOC Spring Keynote!

Monday, March 28, 2011
4:00 - 4:30
• EOC Open House and Reception

4:30 - 5:30
• EOC Welcome – Jan Nerger & Andrew Warnock
• Keynote Presentation*
  “Is Science Education in Colorado on the Right Track?”
  (*In collaboration with the Colo-STEM Center and the CSU Chapter of Sigma Xi)

Location:
CNS Education & Outreach Center (formerly CSMATE)
Third floor of the Natural & Environmental Sciences Building
1231 East Drive, Main Campus

For a list of other events see:
www.cns-eoc.colostate.edu/events.html

Nancy Kellogg is one of the leading advocates for inquiry-based science education in the state of Colorado. She has been involved in the crafting of the state standards and assessments. She has been a science educator for over 40 years and was the recipient of the Outstanding Leadership in Science Education Award in 2008 presented by the National Science Education Leadership Association.