You are invited to the College of Natural Sciences Education & Outreach Center’s Fall Keynote*! (*In collaboration with the CSU Chapter of Sigma Xi)

When:
Wednesday, October 24, 2012
EOC Open House and Reception 3:30 - 4:00 p.m.
Keynote Presentation 4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Where:
CNS Education & Outreach Center
Third floor of the Natural & Environmental Sciences Building
1231 East Drive, Main Campus

Please RSVP to andrew.warnock@colostate.edu to reserve your seat today! Students welcome!
Tell your friends!

www.cns-eoc.colostate.edu/events.html

Dr. Schweitzer began her career as a research assistant to NASA’s Voyager program and by helping to test one of the cameras for the Hubble Space Telescope. Her research has appeared in scientific journals, the New York Times, and Sky & Telescope Magazine. She is a founding member of the Little Thompson Observatory in Berthoud and was the US Project Manager for the 2009 International Year of Astronomy.